

National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education Nomination for NAKHE Fellow 2019

Nominations for NAKHE Fellow are welcomed each year. All NAKHE members are eligible to nominate their NAKHE colleagues for this prestigious designation.

A NAKHE Fellow is one of the acknowledged leaders in the field of kinesiology who has the added distinction of providing outstanding service to NAKHE through a variety of contributions. Each year

Fellows are selected using the criteria below. Selections for new Fellows are made by a committee composed of current NAKHE Fellows. All nominations recommended by the NAKHE Fellows Committee are approved by the NAKHE Board of Directors.

Criteria:

1. Significant contributions to NAKHE, including but not limited to sustained and active membership of 10 years or more, leadership on NAKHE committees, editing NAKHE publications, holding senior NAKHE leadership positions (secretary, vice president, president, or other posts), or other significant contributions;
2. Significant contributions to the field, including but not limited to scholarly productivity, leadership in the field of kinesiology or one's home institution, or other contributions listed in the nomination and award process;
3. Earned academic rank of Associate or Full Professor;
4. Completed submission of all required material for committee review (NAKHE Fellow application, current abbreviated CV)

2018 Fellows nominations and supporting materials are to be sent to:
