

NAKHE Nominee Vita Form

MUST NOT EXCEED 1 PAGE

Your name and University: Jaimie McMullen, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

Office for which you have been nominated: President

Terminal degree and area of study, e.g., PhD – Exercise Physiology: PhD – Curriculum and Instruction (Physical Education)

Current principal university position, e.g., Lecturer, Professor, Department Chair: Assistant Professor

Engagement in and service to NAKHE (e.g., conference attendance; committee work; leadership roles; journal reviewing; etc.) Fill in the box below:

Jaimie has served NAKHE in many capacities since she was awarded the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award and became involved in the organization in 2011. In addition to regularly attending the annual conference, she has served as a proposal reviewer prior to the conference and a session moderator at the conference.

More recently, in January 2025, Jaimie completed her three-year tenure as the Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Kinesiology in Higher Education (IJKHE) and maintains a role as an Editorial Board member for IJKHE. She has also regularly reviewed articles for Quest.

Jaimie is in the last year of her term in the Vice President role as is currently the Past-Vice President of NAKHE. As Vice President, she coordinated the program for the 2025 NAKHE Conference in San Juan, PR and was heavily involved in the planning of all of the conference logistics prior to the onboarding of the new Conference Managers.

Jaimie has also been on the Marketing Committee, helped judge posters at the conference, and contributed to revising operational codes for the VP positions at NAKHE.

Leadership experience outside of NAKHE. Fill in the box below:

Outside of NAKHE Jaimie has been in several leadership positions including being President of North Dakota Society of Health and Physical Educators (SHAPE), and SHAPE Colorado, being on the Board of Directors for SHAPE America, serving as the University-Liaison for the Hawaii Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance (HAHPERD), and being on the Board of Directors of the Physical Education Association of Ireland.

At the University-level, Jaimie has served in many capacities including as a faculty representative for student clubs, as a member of faculty senate, being the Chair of a Teacher Education committee, contributing to the development of new college-wide shared assessments, and serving as an Assessment Coordinator for the College of Education, among others. She also regularly reviews for several professional journals and also serves on the Editorial board for the European Physical Education Review.