

Lisa Paulson Short Bio

Lisa Paulson is a Teaching Assistant Professor at the University of Wisconsin-Superior. Lisa earned her Ph.D. from the University of Northern Colorado. She has six years of higher education teaching experience and six years of PK-12 experience teaching elementary physical education, adapted physical education, and middle school health education. Lisa is chair of the SHAPE America Physical Activity Council, chair of the advocacy committee for SHAPE Colorado, and serves on the NAKHE marketing and technology committee.