

Timothy Baghurst

Professional Preparation

- 2008 Ph.D., University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR. Major: Kinesiology
- 2006 M.S., Midwestern State University, Wichita Falls, TX. Major: Kinesiology
- 2003 P.G.C.E., University of Bangor, Wales. Major: Information Technology
- 2002 MSc., University of Bangor, Wales. Major: Applied Sport & Exercise Psychology
- 2001 BSc., University of Chichester, England. Major: Sports Science

Professional Experience

- 2019–present Professor, College of Education, Florida State University
- 2012–2019 Professor, Health and Human Performance, Oklahoma State University
- 2009–2012 Assistant Professor, Kinesiology, Henderson State University
- 2008–2009 Visiting Assistant Professor, Kinesiology, University of Arkansas

Honors and Awards

- Presidential Award, National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education (NAKHE)
- Regents Distinguished Research Award, Oklahoma State University
- Research Excellence Award, Oklahoma State University
- Fellow, Society of Health and Physical Educators (SHAPE America)
- Fellow, Oklahoma Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance
- Fellow, Oklahoma State University College of Education, Health, and Aviation

Scholarship and Grants

- 29 grants and contracts funded
- 139 invited or refereed journal articles
- 7 books, 22 book chapters published
- Many invited presentations, workshops, and clinics

Selected Service

- NAKHE – Vice President, Future Directions Committee, Marketing Committee
- Board Member, Oklahoma National Strength and Conditioning Association
- Editorial board member of 3 journals; reviewer for 32
- Member, Squash 57 Committee, World Squash Federation
- Co-Author, Rulebook of the International Racquetball Federation (IRF)