STAY UPDATED WITH NAKHE!

MARCH 2021

It is a SPRING TIME and NAKHE is warm and active!

NAKHE is up and moving to better our academia in Higher Education and the society around us. In January, the NAKHE 2021 Conference team successfully hosted the virtual conference. Five exceptional lectures as well as other individual presentations and discussions were actively occurred throughout the conference.

International Kinesiology Hub, a new initiative with NAKHE, is proposed by the former NAKHE president Dr. Betty Block and her team to strength the internationalization of an academic society.

If you have not, please make sure to follow NAKHE on Facebook, Twitter, and Linkedin!

NAKHE 2021 Conference: THANK YOU!

"The NAKHE Board of Directors extend their sincere thanks to everyone that played a part in making our first virtual conference a success! We especially want to thank all our hosts, presenters, lecturers and keynote speakers. We could not have done this without you! Most of all we wish to thank the NAKHE members who attended the conference, without whom, the conference would not have been successful. We look forward to seeing all of you again at next year's conference!"

NAKHE PUBLICATIONS: QUEST & IJKHE

NAKHE partners with Taylor & Francis Group to publish professional journals addressing kinesiology issues, research, and best practices in higher education leadership, administration, and teaching. NAKHE also regularly publishes newsletters to keep its members up-to-date on association news, activities, and events.

NAKHE INTERNATIONAL KINESIOLOGY HUB

NAKHE is taking on a new initiative, International Kinesiology Hub, to foster the Internationalization of the academic society. The vision is "establishing Kinesiology scholar-leaders as major contributors to the global knowledge-based economy addressing societies' grand challenges." The mission is "The International Kinesiology Hub (IKH) is a NAKHE sponsored global initiative that promotes scholarship, talent, and knowledge-innovation models for the purpose of engaging highly skilled and talented scholar-leaders across international borders to address matters relevant to identified global grand challenges. The IKH serves not only as a global initiative, but a philanthropic arm of NAKHE that aims to craft and deliver creative solutions for the long-term well-being of communities impacted by the discipline of kinesiology." More details will be shared in up-coming newsletters!
